Appeal for Information

On 23 October 2014 at about 8:45 am, we received a call from a concerned member of the public about a dog allegedly abandoned in a light blue carrier left by the dustbin near lift lobbies A and B at Blk 990 Jurong West St 93's multi-storey carpark (as seen in picture on the left). We are appealing to the public for any information or witnesses who may be able to identify the culprit(s) responsible for this cruel act, so that the necessary action can be taken against them. If you can help, please call the SPCA 24-hr Hotline at 6287 5355 ext. 9 or send an e-mail to inspector@sPCA.org.sg and depinspector@sPCA.org.sg and quote the reference number indicated above.

Note: Anyone interested in adopting or fostering this dog can contact us at the number and/or e-mail addresses above for more details. Please also quote our Reference Number stated above. Thank you.*

In Singapore, cruelty to animals is a crime. Under the Animals and Birds Act (pending revision), anyone who is found guilty of such an offence including abandonment of any animal, can be imprisoned for up to 12 months, fined up to $10,000, or both.
