Dear Sirs,

I refer to the report in the Straits Times "police seek man seen hitting birds at Changi" in which it was stated that for future cases of animal cruelty, members of the public can contact the Agri_Food and Veterinary Authority of Singapore at ava_cawc@ava.gov.sg

For the benefit of ST readers and the public who may wish to report urgent cruelty that they witnessed after office hours (e.g. violent abuse against an animal, resulting in injury or death) the SPCA seeks clarification as to who at the AVA they should contact, and the telephone number after office hours.

Aside from this, we would like to assure the public, that they can also call the SPCA at 62875355 (24 hours) if they witness animal cruelty/neglect and we will work with the relevant authority on the case if it warrants enforcement action.

Yours sincerely,

Corinne Fong (MS)
Executive Director
Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA)
